

Proper Nouns and Pronouns

Each sentence has at least two proper nouns and at least two pronouns.

Underline or highlight the proper nouns using a red colour, and the pronouns using a blue colour

1. Emily and Jordan waited at the station while she reminded you of the plan.
2. Maria and Thomas baked cookies, and they shared them.
3. London and Paris were exciting, so we visited them.
4. Dr. Smith and Mrs. Patel greeted the class, and she thanked him.
5. Cristiano Ronaldo played against Lionel Messi, and he praised him after the match.
6. Alice and Bob climbed Snowdon, and they admired its view.
7. Manchester United and Liverpool played yesterday, and we watched them.
8. Mia and Oscar read together, and she helped him with the story.

Scroll down for solutions

Solutions

1. Emily and Jordan waited at the station while she reminded you of the plan.
2. Maria and Thomas baked cookies, and they shared them.
3. London and Paris were exciting, so we visited them.
4. Dr. Smith and Mrs. Patel greeted the class, and she thanked him.
5. Cristiano Ronaldo played against Lionel Messi, and he praised him after the match.
6. Alice and Bob climbed Snowdon, and they admired its view.
7. Manchester United and Liverpool played yesterday, and we watched them.
8. Mia and Oscar read together, and she helped him with the story.