

Questions

1. Why did April whisper, "Not yet," when she picked the yellow dandelion?

- A. She wanted to give it to her grandmother.
- B. She believed it was not yet the right time to make her wish.
- C. She was waiting for her parents to arrive.
- D. She did not know how to make a wish.

2. What suggests that Grandma was a wise and observant person?

- A. She could predict the first snowfall and knew when the swallows would return.
- B. She travelled to many different countries.
- C. She worked as a teacher in the village.
- D. She wrote books about gardening.

3. Why did the cottage seem "strangely silent" after Grandma moved away?

- A. The neighbours had stopped visiting.
- B. There were no birds left in the garden.
- C. Grandma's absence had changed the atmosphere of the home.
- D. The family had decided to move house.

4. What does the word muddled most nearly mean in the sentence, "Her memories are becoming muddled."?

- A. Exciting
- B. Forgotten forever
- C. Confused or mixed up
- D. Completely accurate

5. Why did April chase after the dandelion?

- A. She wanted to plant it in Grandma's garden.
- B. It had blown away in the wind.
- C. A rabbit had stolen it.
- D. She wanted to show it to the gardener.

6. What lesson was the gardener trying to teach April when he said, "I think they begin when they open them."?

- A. Wishing only works outdoors.
- B. People should always close their eyes before making a wish.
- C. Dreams are impossible to achieve.
- D. Wishes begin when people notice opportunities and take action.

7. Which detail best shows that the villagers cared about one another?

- A. Volunteers were repairing an old wooden bench and neighbours were helping an elderly couple.
- B. The church tower overlooked the village.
- C. The flowers were blooming across the hillside.
- D. Rabbits were running through the grass.

8. Why did April decide to tidy Grandma's garden?

- A. She wanted to win the village gardening competition.
- B. She hoped Grandma would give her the shortbread recipe.
- C. She realised that although she couldn't fix everything, she could still make a positive difference.
- D. Her parents insisted that she should do it.

9. Which word best describes April at the end of the story?

- A. Disappointed
- B. Hopeful
- C. Jealous
- D. Careless

10. Which of the following is the main message of the story?

- A. Gardens are difficult to look after.
- B. Magic is the answer to every problem.
- C. Memories can never be lost.
- D. Small acts of kindness can make a meaningful difference, even when we cannot solve everything.